

Food Webs

Across

- 4. An example of a decomposer that is a fungus.
- 13. A smaller carnivore in the ocean with flippers and whiskers.
- 15. A producer which herbivores graze on
- 16. A decomposer (insect, fungus, or bacteria) breaks down animals or plants that are not live, but _____.
- 17. A predator than hunts at night on silent wings.
- 20. an animal that feeds on dead plant material.
- 21. The tallest herbivore on Earth.

22. A omnivore in the bear family (2 words).

Down

- 1. Photosynthesis - plants make their own food using _____, water and carbon dioxide.
- 2. An animal that is chased and eaten by another animal.
- 3. A carnivore in the dog family (2 words).
- 5. The smallest carnivore on Earth.
- 6. An animal that chases down and eats another animal.
- 7. A producer that makes its own food through photosynthesis.

8. A carnivore in the bear family (2 words).

- 9. A striped carnivore in the cat family.
- 10. The biggest herbivore on Earth.
- 11. A map of who eat whom in an ecosystem is called a food _____.
- 12. A consumer is an _____ that eats what is in its ecosystem.
- 14. A herbivore is an animal that eats only _____.
- 18. A carnivore is an animal that eats only _____.
- 19. A large hooved, herbivore with antlers.