

For High I.Q ONLY

Across

- 3. Two or more elements placed side by side
- 4. The soothsayer reveals it
- 7. Environment created by the author through word choice and details
- 9. Reference
- 11. Representational character
- 13. An appeal to logic and reason
- 14. An element representing an abstract idea
- 15. An appeal to authority and credibility in terms of persuasive language

- 16. Unescapable, bad, dark, evil fate
- 18. A call to the emotions of the audience
- 20. Wakes your senses up through some high quality vocab
- 21. Recurring element
- 22. The slithering snake slithered through the slimy swamp

Down

- 1. When a bulb enlightens
- 2. The modification of a traditional sentence structure
- 5. Tangible element used to depict abstract ideas and themes

- 6. Basically what you think about the subject
- 8. An element which existed or will exist at a different era
- 10. Events that lead to where the character is now in the story
- 12. The fact of replacing appropriate counterparts with similar-sounding words
- 17. Meanings or emotions suggested by a word
- 19. Emphasizes a Statement's signification