

Name: _____

Date: _____

Forensic Psychology - Defining And Measuring Crime

Across

- 3. what is assured from offender surveys
- 5. who has vested interest when using some measures more than others when discussing crime
- 9. what's it called when a victim may think an offence occurred more recently than it did

10. a way of measuring crime which involves the government

11. an issue with defining crime

12. crime that is not recorded is known as

13. offender surveys are what type of survey

Down

1. what do all methods of measuring crime have in common

2. using all of the three types of surveys is known as what approach

4. victim surveys are sent out to house holds

6. an act committed in violation of the law where the consequence is a conviction

7. victim surveys are more ... than official statistics

8. official statistics are