

Name: _____

Date: _____

Forensic Science

Across

- 2. Physical evidence that can be linked to a specific person or object
- 3. Physical evidence that is consistent to a group of people or objects
- 8. The application of science to the law
- 9. A type of print that is not visible to the naked eye
- 10. Physical evidence found in a small amount at a crime scene ex) hair, fibers, glass, paint etc.

Down

- 1. Tool that uses both visible and invisible light to enhance observation, photography, and collection of trace evidence
- 4. Any physical location where a crime has happened or is suspected to have happened
- 5. One of the fingerprint patterns besides loops and arches
- 6. Criminal activities carried out by means of computers or the Internet.
- 7. The molecules that carry the body's genetic information