

Name: _____

Date: _____

Forensic Science

Across

5. may be called in if the evidence requires expert analysis

6. Statement of where a suspect was at the time of the crime

10. You can tell what weapons were used based on the _____.

12. can be used to help match a suspect to a victim

13. Shoes and tire tracks are easy to track someone with.

14. Everyone has unique teeth and different shaped mouths.

15. An alternative location where additional evidence may be found.

Down

1. is often present to help determine if any search warrants are required to proceed and obtains those warrants from a judge.

2. The original location of a crime or accident.

3. Would be any witness account of an incident or crime.

4. May or may not be present to determine a preliminary cause of death.

7. Any physical location in which a crime has occurred or is suspected of having occurred.

8. Documents the crime scene in detail and collects any physical evidence.

9. person thought to be capable of committing a crime

11. Second person associated with committing a crime.