

Forms of Contamination

Across

- 5. found in feces, high levels remain in feces for weeks after symptoms are gone
- 7. The six conditions bacteria needs in order to grow
- 8. how many weeks can a pathogen live?
- 9. associated w/ seafood, wild game, and food processed w/ contaminated h₂o
- 10. carried in blood & intestinal tract, severity of symptoms depends on health of person

- 12. what is one way contaminants are transferred?

Down

- 1. one of the 5 most common foodborne illness symptom
- 2. a fungi that causes an foodborne illness
- 3. bacteria, viruses, parasites, and fungi are harmful microorganisms that are called pathogens, which is what type of contamination?
- 4. found in feces of infected people, linked to shellfish in contaminated h₂o

- 6. carried by humans and animals, need a living host, cannot row in food but can be transferred in food
- 11. found in intestines of cattle and people, small amounts make you sick