

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Forms of Contamination

Across

6. Pathogens are a form of this contamination, found naturally in food

8. A protein in a food or ingredient that some are sensitive to

10. Contaminates consisting of bones, metal shavings, fingernails, glass, dirt, etc.

11. Found in the feces of humans

12. Linked to ready-to-eat food and shellfish from contaminated water; found in feces of infected humans

13. Requires a host to live and reproduce

14. Found in the intestines of cattle

Down

1. Carried naturally in farm animals and linked with poultry, eggs, meat, dairy products, and produce

2. Conditions for bacteria to grow

3. Contaminates consisting of cleaners, sanitizers, polishes, perfumes, lubricants etc

4. Characterized by nausea, hives, swelling, itchy rashes, abdominal pain, wheezing

5. Lives only in humans, found in ready to eat food and beverages

7. Transferred to food via infected food handlers touching food or equipment

9. Yeasts, molds, and mushrooms