

Forms of Energy

Across

2. fuel formed by the remains of prehistoric living things

6. the term resulting from or producing heat

8. the resistance caused by the rubbing of two objects against each other

9. the ability to cause change in matter

11. the energy something has because of its position or condition

12. producing electricity by using the energy from moving water

Down

1. the total potential and kinetic energy of an object

3. having the ability to be restored or regenerated

4. the rapid motion of a substance or movement of particle in an air mass [sound or light waves]

5. an engine that is driven by the movement of fluid

7. the energy of motion

10. the rise or slope of something