

Name: _____ Date: _____

Forms of Governments

Across

- 3. One ruler has supreme authority that is not restricted by any written laws
- 4. One person rules with unlimited power in a government
- 8. The people decide what goes on in the government directly
- 9. A society in which all property is publicly owned and each person works and is paid according to their abilities and needs.
- 11. Absence of government and absolute freedom of the individual

Down

- 1. The principle of elected officials representing a group of people

- 2. A group of people rule with unlimited power

- 5. One person who has complete control over the government by election, inherited, or taken by force

- 6. A state in which supreme power is held by the people and their elected representatives, and which has an elected or nominated president

- 7. Theory of social organization that believes that the means of making, moving, and trading wealth should be owned or controlled by the community as a whole

- 10. One person rules with limited power