

Free Enterprise System

Across

2. Seeks to make a profit from its operations
3. local, state, and federal government agencies and services, such as public libraries and state universities
8. Companies that make such parts experience an increased demand as a result of consumer decisions to buy more cars
9. Is the discipline that keeps track of a company's financial situation
11. Is the process of achieving company goals by effective use of resources through planning, organizing and controlling

12. Refers to consumer willingness and ability to buy products

13. Obtain goods from manufacturers and resell them to industrial users, other wholesalers, and retailers

15. Businesses not associated with government agencies

Down

1. Functions like a business but uses the money it makes to fund the cause identified in its charter

4. Is the function of business that involves money management

5. Consists of a group of establishments primarily engaged in producing or handling the same product or group of products or in rendering the same services

6. The process of creating, expanding, manufacturing, or improving on goods and services is called

7. Buy goods from wholesalers or directly from manufactures and resell them to the consumer

10. In the marketplace, conditions of surplus, shortage, or equilibrium are created

14. Is the amount of goods producers are willing to make and sell