

French Revolution Review

Across

3. The Constitution of 1791 set up this type of government in France.
5. Louis Auguste married _____ when he was only 15 years old.
9. Angered with the Estates General, the Third Estate leaves and forms this group.
11. This group marched to Versailles, angry at Queen Marie Antoinette for storing large amounts of food when the poor were starving.
12. Together, the First and Second Estate only made up about _____ percent of the population.
22. In a twist of irony, Robespierre is sentenced to death by _____ after being found guilty.
23. The women who stormed the Palace of Versailles demanded that the King, Queen, and their son move back to this city.
24. King Louis XIV put France into _____ because he spent lavishly on the Palace of Versailles.
25. This estate was made up of the Bourgeoisie and Peasantry. They were the poorest in France.
26. A King or Queen who has complete power.
28. King Louis XIV calls himself this because he believes he is so important.
29. This group made up the First Estate. It included the priests who worked in the Church.

32. King Louis XVI and Queen Marie Antoinette were both sentenced to death by _____.
33. The Constitution of 1799 names Napoleon _____.
34. This became the motto of the French Revolution and still is the French National Motto today.
35. King Louis XVI will call summon together the _____ when France's financial crisis cannot be solved.

Down

1. After the Reign of Terror ends, France's new constitution sets up a Five-Man _____ and a two-house legislature.
2. King Louis XIV began to tax these two groups to get money for his spending.
4. A national hero from Corsica who moves back to France to help the Revolution.
6. A perk of being in the First or Second Estate was that they paid _____.
7. This group in the Legislative Assembly wore long pants as a sign of being against the rich and noble.
8. What did the National Assembly sign saying they would continue to meet until a new constitution was signed?
10. This is how French Society was divided before the Revolution.
13. This prison was stormed by the Third Estate as a sign of Revolution to King Louis XVI.

14. The Third Estate, at _____ percent, contained most people in France.
15. The Reign of Terror was led by _____, a leader in the National Convention.
16. King Louis XVI hired a _____ to help get France out of debt.
17. The Legislative Assembly was a huge failure and became the _____.
18. What were the citizens looking for when they stormed the Bastille?
19. This group made up the Second Estate. These were important people who were not royalty.
20. This group is set up after Napoleon overthrows the Directory.
21. This is the title that Napoleon gives to himself when he creates the Consulate.
27. King Louis XVI was put on trial as a _____.
30. People in France _____ when they heard that King Louis XIV had died.
31. Each Estate in the Estates General received just _____.