

Frosts crossward

Across

2. to settle a dispute, with both sides giving up a part of what they demand
 3. careless and lavish spending, wastefulness
 5. to give up renounce
 6. the great charter which guaranteed the English people certain civil rights and limited the powers of the monarch
 8. a form of government in which a monarch acts as head of state; but his or her powers are limited by constitution
 9. a king, queen, emperor, or empress with unlimited power
 14. to plunge suddenly under water and out again
 16. legal and military custom that ordered society in medieval europe
 22. a Government where there is no king or queen; power rests with the citizens who vote to elect their leaders
 24. a ruler who uses power oppressively or unjustly
 25. strict laws, often printed on blue paper
 27. a series of wars fought between Catholics and protestants in europe
 29. any christian not belonging to the roman catholic or eastern orthodox church
 30. a royal court where sessions were held in secret

33. wagons of supplies, as well as people, needed to support an army
 34. the rights of a citizen, such as safety protection from discrimination and the right to vote
 35. the legislative body in England
 36. a follower of the teachings of john Calvin, a leader of the protestant
 37. false and malicious statements against the monarch, which are considered treason

Down

1. a document affirming specific rights for English citizens
 4. a literary work in which corruption, foolishness, or abuses are held up to ridicule and contempt
 7. when two or more groups in a country fight each other for control of that
 10. a government that is controlled by the people who live under it
 11. the official church in England, headed by the monarch
 12. settlement and control of the lands of others for the purpose of extracting resources
 13. to take good by force
 15. born of parents not married to each other; not recognized by law as an heir
 17. a fleet of ships sent by Spain in 1588 to invade England

18. jewellery used but not personally owned by the royal family

19. a supporter of Charles I; derived from the french word chevalier, meaning "horseman"
 20. a ruler with unrestricted authority
 21. a device consisting of a wooden board with holes for the head and arms, in which offenders were exposed to public scorn
 23. a act forbidding anyone except members of the church of England from holding political office or entering the professions
 26. a king or queen
 28. a person given a special treatment
 31. a payment of one-tenth of a person's earnings
 32. criminal court session