

Functional Maths at HMP Oakwood

Across

2. A person who is in your classroom to support you with your learning. They will have a level 2 English and Maths so you can receive the best possible support.

5. If you are a member of this team you are here to help others understand the importance of education. You will be good at time management, be able to add & subtract and great with people.

8. This person decorates areas of the prison. He will need to work out area and space.

9. If you want a career as a tradesman, then this is the place for you! To get started you will need level 1 English and Maths so you can understand area, perimeter, scales, ratio, measure and timekeeping.

10. A popular place to be for most, but to have a job there you need to understand number, counting and be able to convert units.

11. This group of people support prisoners who are on Basic to try and reduce negative behaviour. They will be good at timekeeping, using numbers and forms.

13. A scheme to help improve reading. Led by prisoners for prisoners. To be a mentor for this role you will need to complete forms, time manage and calculate.

Down

1. A person who helps to keep a prison tidy. This person will have knowledge of timekeeping and ratio.

3. This is a popular course where you are likely to gain employment upon release. To enrol on this course you need a level 2 English and Maths.

4. A place many people like to work, especially if they like reading. To work here you must be able to chronologically order, manage time and be able to calculate numbers.

6. This course is a favourite amongst prisoners. It's full of your personality, but you will need to count numbers and beats.

7. Your meals come from here. In order to work here you are required to understand weight, convert units, calculate and manage time.

12. A wonderful place in the summer. This orderly will need to calculate area, perimeter, numbers and time.