

Fundamentals of Human Communication

Across

- 1. A communication that takes place within an organization among members of the organization.
- 4. A communication you have with yourself.
- 8. A form of communication between a speaker and the audience that varies in size.
- 9. A form of electronic communication that does not take place in real time
- 12. A state of awareness in which we are conscious of our reasons for thinking or behaving .
- 14. The medium through which the message passes.

- 15. A message sent to the speaker reacting to what is said
- 16. A communication that proceeds by question and answer.
- 17. A message that refers to another message.
- 18. Anything that interferes with your receiving message.
- 19. Communication between and among people.
- 20. A generalization that explains how something works.

Down

- 2. A form of communication between two persons or among a small group of persons.

- 3. A communication among members of groups of about five to ten people.
- 5. A communication form from one source to many receivers worldwide.
- 6. A logical, well-reasoned, unbiased and clear thinking.
- 7. Any signals transmitted from source to receiver
- 10. The art of producing messages like speaking or writing.
- 11. The study of good and bad, right or wrong, of moral and immoral.
- 13. A systematic search of information or an investigation of a topic.