

G12 Unit 3

Across

- 4. low blood sugar
- 7. The most important thing you should do for a person who is having a seizure is to protect their _____
- 8. An _____ is the body's response to substances that it has become sensitive to
- 9. A disease where the body is unable to properly produce or respond to insulin & the body's sugar level becomes abnormal
- 10. Hormone created in the pancreas that helps move sugar from blood to the body's cells

Down

- 1. Occurs when there is abnormal electrical activity in the brain
- 2. Medication in the form of an auto- injector; used when someone is having an allergic reaction (Section 3.5)
- 3. High blood sugar
- 5. A severe allergic reaction
- 6. _____ of allergies can range from mild to severe

Word Bank

- | | | | |
|-------------|---------------|----------------|----------|
| anaphylaxis | insulin | hyperglycaemia | head |
| allergy | epinephrine | symptoms | diabetes |
| seizure | hypoglycaemia | | |