

GI Crossword

Across

2. Telescoping of a portion of bowel into and adjacent distal portion

4. predisposition to cancer, associated with GERD

5. Massive dilation of colon (severe constipation)

10. inflammation of colon and rectum. (crypts of Lieberkuhn)

14. Inflammation of the stomach and small intestine caused by infection

16. Injury to upper GI tract caused by acid or pepsin. (gastric/duodenal)

17. Acute inflammation and necrosis of the small and large intestines caused by C.difficile

18. Diffuse or patchy intestinal necrosis accompanied by sepsis, infants

19. Prolonged vomiting causes injury to wall, associated with alcohol abuse

Down

1. abnormal, enlarged veins (liver diseases)

3. Alternating diarrhea and constipation accompanied by abdominal cramping pain.

6. Inflammation of the GI that extends into ALL LAYERS of the intestinal wall

7. Inflammation of diverticula that may lead to abscess formation in colon wall

8. Inflammation of the stomach lining

9. Mechanical and Functional(narcs)

11. Sliding and Paraesophageal

12. Twisting of bowel on itself causing intestinal obstruction and blood vessel compression

13. closure strength of LES decreased, irritation of food ingested, hernias

15. common microbe that causes ulcers, reduces risk for esophageal cancer