

Name: _____

GTT Vocabulary

Across

6. Subnormal body temperature.
9. The act of weakening a virus or pathogen and giving it to someone so they can build antibodies for that pathogen. May cause you to get a little sick.
11. The rise of blood pressure, mainly diastolic pressure.
13. How fast your heart beats in a minute.
14. The highest arterial blood pressure in a ventricular cycle.
16. The throbbing of the arteries, from the contractions of the heart.
17. A type of pathogen that infects your own blood cells to multiply.
18. The sudden eruption, where a disease infects many.

19. A virus, bacteria, fungi, or parasite.
20. A vaccine.

Down

1. Something that damages your body by killing your cells, or injuring you in some way.
2. When you have an infection or disease, and are able to spread it from person to person.
3. An abnormally high fever.
4. The lowest arterial blood pressure during any ventricular cycle.
5. Finding out a type of disease or infection someone has through medical examination.
7. Something that an infection or disease causes.

8. When someone has any signs of the following , pulse, body temperature, or respiration
10. The psychology of higher animals and how they work together?
12. The pressure of blood against the inner wall of a blood vessel. Can vary in different parts of the body due to health, and how fast or slow your heart is beating.
15. When a mass number of people get infected with the same type of disease in an area that is not a common area for sickness.