

Gender and Sex

Across

4. In what way do societies categorize its members as a way of structuring society?

6. _____ refers to the multiplex of identities that individuals occupy at a given time.

7. _____ is focused on ending the oppression of women and men.

8. Stereotypes are used to discriminate what gender mostly?

10. A _____ perspective is tasked with women's empowerment, with pulling women up to the status of men.

11. Expected behaviors associated with statuses that help organize our social world.

14. _____ differs from sexual orientation.

15. How many types of statuses?

18. Oversimplified conceptions

19. Feminism advocates for the social, political, economic, and _____ equality of the sexes.

20. Claims that women's oppressions stems from male domination.

21. Believes that capitalism and sexism are systems of oppression cut from the same cloth.

22. What type of status is gender?

23. Roles are performed according to what?

Down

1. Individuals are _____ with their sexual orientation

2. Women represent _____-____% of all people trafficked into forced labor.

3. Most people do not challenge _____ because it is not considered problematic, unlike racism.

5. Believe that all people are created equal and should not be denied equality of opportunity because of gender.

9. What type of status is sex?

12. Biological characteristics that distinguish female from male

13. Believe that the feminine should be highlighted and valued.

16. A _____ exists which refers to the idea that men are allowed to express themselves sexually and women are not.

17. _____ orientation refers to an individuals romantic attraction to others.