

Gender mainstreaming

Across

8. the interconnected nature of social categorizations such as race, class, and gender as they apply to a given individual or group, regarded as creating overlapping and interdependent systems of discrimination or disadvantage.

9. behavior learned by a person as appropriate to their gender, determined by the prevailing cultural norms.

10. taxation is a form of generation

Down

1. the process of understanding the differences in women's and men's experiences, realities, needs and responsibilities

2. the process of allocating funds to meet women's and men's needs

3. what girls and boys need for development

4. the unjust or prejudicial treatment of different categories of people or things, especially on the grounds of race, age, or sex.

5. when women and men live in harmony

6. ther of the two main categories (male and female) into which humans and many other living things are divided on the basis of their reproductive functions.

7. what the world needs now

Word Bank

gender budgeting

love

revenue

gender analysis

discrimination

intersectionality

role

peace

sex

education