

General Management

Across

3. A managerial competency

7. One of the four broad outcomes of King IV

9. If management does not make responsible decisions, the market will punish the business

11. Person taking responsibility for his/her actions

12. This person focuses on people and inspires trust

13. Doing the right thing even when no one is looking.

Down

1. The person who combines the 3 factors of production in order to start a new business venture.

2. Decisions being taken in accordance with a set of rules.

4. Combination of all different leadership style

5. Trust and good ...

6. Employee gets more responsibility and more authority

8. This person maintains systems and relies on control

10. This leader seldom allows for input from subordinates and makes all decisions