

Generations of Nursing

Across

2. ____ friction occurs when older and younger nurses experience conflict.

5. Which decade of life are nurses working to?

9. Which generation would say, "I already have plans. Maybe next time."

10. Which generation would say, "Call me back if you can't find anyone else."

11. want meaningful work, stimulation, engagement, involvement, multitasking

12. want career advancement, shared governance, autonomy and independence, work/life balance

Down

1. Which generation would say, "What time do you need me?"

3. What percentage of nurses age 65 and older still work in hospitals?

4. want less demanding schedules (part time, shorter shifts), reduced stress or workload, and a job well done

6. What is the term for those born near the dividing line between generations?

7. want recognition for experience and excellence, positive environment, good pay/benefits

8. Which generation would say, "How much will you pay me?"