

Name: _____

Genre Puzzle

Across

6. The setting is usually real, characters can be make-believe, and the setting takes place in a time period of the past.
8. Provides Factual information covering any given topic- sports, history, weather, space, animals,
9. May use rhythm and rhyme, and creates a response of thought and feeling.
10. The author gives an account of their own life story.

Down

1. Stories passed down from generation to generation- folktales, fairy tales, myths, fables, legends, and tall tales
2. Stories including time machines, robots, or aliens. It uses science and technology, and is often set in the future.
3. Stories from an author's imagination, but could be true to life.
4. The author creates suspense that isn't solved until the end of the story.
5. Tells the story of a real person's life.
7. Contains elements that are not true or cannot happen in reality.