Name: _____ Date: _____

Geochaching Terms

Across
2. Term for a non-geocacher
7. A set of coordinates that typically include longitude, latitude and sometimes altitude
8. Where everyone who has found the geocache writes their tag and the date
10. The degree of closeness of the indicated readings to the actual position
11. Time and effort in finding the cache (two words)

13. Container or object containing the log
14. Game pieces that have a unique tracking code
Down
1. The physical effort of arriving at the coordinates (Two word)
3. The point when your GPS device shows that you have reached the cache location or within 5 meters of the cache (two words)

4. Information that can give details away and ruin the experience of something
5. A cache that involves two or more locations
6. Factors that determine how accurate a GSP is
9. Acronym for not finding the geocache
12. Acronym for tools that geocachers use