

Geography Crossword

Across

2. The line that splits the world in half along its horizontal axis.

5. An accumulation of sand next to a water source.

9. An area which soil is frequently or permanently saturated with or under water.

13. A slow, upward movement.

14. A series of ocean waves capable of causing mass destruction.

16. What is the plural for a species of omnivores that dominate the world today?

17. Landforms that rise prominently above their surroundings.

19. A subject commonly learnt in school. The study of people and places and the relations between them.

20. Located in the basin of the Pacific ocean. Known for many volcanoes surrounding it. (Three words)

Down

1. Numbers or a key that can tell you how large things are or how small it has been made.

3. A natural cavity, void or chamber near or under the Earth's surface.

4. A term of measurement used in the metric system.

6. Something specific, starts with the letter 'e'.

7. Located next to or on the bank of a river.

8. What is the vertical measure of a place on the world?

10. This type of land form can be created in many ways such as breaking of another piece of land. Surrounded fully with water.

11. What is a piece of paper that can tell you how to get where you want to go?

12. Acronym for a tracking device that uses satellites to depict your location.

15. Large mountain filled with magma, which changes form when it erupts. Can explode at any moment if active.

18. The direction on a map that points downwards.