

Name: _____

Geography Year Nine 2018

Across

2. The action of clearing a wide area of trees.
4. The rigid outer part of the earth, consisting of the crust and upper mantle.
6. Usually a numerical measure of quality, often used to illustrate progress.
8. A large region of Earth that has a certain climate and certain types of living things.
12. A biological community of interacting organisms and their physical environment.
13. Relating to or resulting from living organisms.
14. the practices of grazing (grassland) so heavily that the vegetation is damaged and the ground becomes liable to erosion.
19. The spread of city buildings and houses into an area that used to be countryside on the outskirts of an urban area
20. Physical rather than biological; not derived from living organisms.
21. The regions of the surface and atmosphere of the earth or another planet occupied by living organisms.
22. The movement of people or animals to a new area or country in order to find work or better living conditions.
23. something that is important to maintain and preserve for future generations has _____
24. Relating to water.
27. On or relating to the earth.

29. The envelope of gases surrounding the earth and other planets.
30. Ecosystems that provide services for humanity have

31. The process of making an area more urban.
32. Relating to, involving, or affecting several generations

Down

1. The surroundings or conditions in which a person, animal, or plant lives or operates.
3. The science or practice of farming, including cultivation of the soil for the growing of crops and the rearing of animals to provide food, wool, and other products.
5. A biotic and abiotic surrounding of an organism or population, including the factors that have an influence in their survival, development, and evolution.
7. Unequal amounts of qualities or resources and services depending on the area or location.
9. Relating to or concerned with the interaction of social and economic factors.
10. All the waters on the earth's surface, such as lakes and seas, and sometimes including water over the earth's surface, such as clouds.
11. The way in which something is shared out among a group or spread over an area.
15. The weather conditions prevailing in an area in general or over a long period.

16. Ecosystems that are priceless and precious, that provide, pleasure or satisfaction have _____
17. Able to be maintained at a certain rate or level.

18. The supply of water to land or crops to help growth, typically by means of channels.

25. The combination of an individual's social, technological, political, economic and environmental health.

26. In, relating to, or characteristic of a town or city.

28. In, relating to, or characteristic of the countryside rather than the town.