

Geography of Ancient Egypt

Across

3. A Greek Historian who famously claimed that Egypt was the "gift of the Nile"

6. The largest river in the world that allowed Egypt to survive

7. The part of Egypt named for its fertile silt

8. Barren land that receives very little rain and has harsh living conditions for plant and animal life

9. This land is located on the delta and above the modern Cairo

10. The annual flooding of the Nile

Down

1. Barren desert that protected Egypt from invading armies

2. A triangular plain at the mouth of a river

4. A narrow river valley with cliffs on both sides

5. People who were very protective of their territory in the Black Lands