

Name: _____

Date: _____

Geology Vocabulary Puzzle

Across

3. the most destructive seismic wave

5. the point on earth's surface right above the focus of an earthquake

9. the first wave during an earthquake

11. one of the scales to measure earthquake magnitude

13. this type of lava appears like braids in ropes

14. this type of lava appears like rough, jagged blocks

15. the point inside the crust where pressure is released during an earthquake

16. this type of volcano has the ability to erupt currently

17. this volcano is currently not active but can become active at some point in the future

19. staying safe during a volcano eruption

Down

1. characterizes the size of the earthquake (how big it is)

2. one of the scales to measure earthquake magnitude

4. this volcano cannot erupt anymore

6. the second wave during an earthquake

7. a person who studies earthquakes

8. staying safe during an earthquake

10. a wave produced by an earthquake

12. an instrument that records the force and duration of earthquakes

18. a crater or vent in a hill or mountain through which lava, rock fragments, hot vapor, and gas are erupting from the earth's crust