

Georgia's Science Equipment Crossword

Across

2. Paper that can separate solids from liquids, without the solids falling into the container the liquid will be sorted into.

6. A pipe or tube that has a wide top and narrow bottom and is used for guiding substances into small openings without the substance falling out.

9. A tool that is used to heat substances in test tubes.

10. A mat that prevents damage from heat to your workplace (Table top).

11. A small tool commonly used to transport a measured volume of liquid, like a syringe.

12. A three-legged stand which could hold containers and provide stability for objects.

13. Equipment to protect your eyes if you come in contact with anything dangerous to your eyes (acid).

Down

1. A tool for you to be able to use to see bacteria or microscopic creatures.

3. An object designed to mix or heat chemicals, hold samples when doing experiments.

4. A container which has a flat bottom and has a cylindrical shape. Has a beak or spout.

5. A dish which is used for evaporating liquids.

7. To prevent chemicals to come in contact with your clothing.

8. Equipment you put on your hands to protect your hands from any chemical spillages or anything hazardous.