

Name: _____

Date: _____

Gi and opioids

Across

2. What is the antidote for an opioid overdose?
 7. What overhead equipment can a patient use in bed to make moving and turning easier?
 9. What is the movement away from the midline of the body?
 11. Which opioid is the standard against which all other opioid drugs are compared?
 12. Most prevalent bone disease in the world?
 13. What are immovable joints called?

14. A normal response that occurs with repeated administration of the opioid for 2 or more weeks and cannot be equated with addictive disease.
 15. This is a type of bone tumor.
 17. Joint where flexion-extension occurs.

18. What prevents skin break down in an immobial patient?

Down

1. Entrapment neuropathy that involves the median nerve?
 3. The practice of designing equipment and work tasks to prevent injuries.

4. Common musculoskeletal pain complaint.

5. What is an infection of the bone?

6. Common inflammatory condition of the shoulder?

8. What is increased convexity in the curvature of the thoracic spine called?

10. Radiating nerve pain down one leg is called?

16. What is the exercise that involves muscle shortening and active movement?