

Name: _____

Date: _____

Glass nutrition crossword

Across

3. Helps moisten food and contains chemical substance called ptyalin
 8. Units to measure energy of value of foods
 11. A mixture of taste, texture and odor
 12. Used to build and repair body parts
 13. Fingerlike projections that cover the walls of the small intestine
 15. Triangular organ located between the stomach and small intestine
 16. Located to the right of the stomach and aids in digestion
 17. Where bile is stored
 19. Regulate growth and normal functions of your body

20. Substance that controls the body's use for sugar
 22. Wavelike motion of moving food downward from esophagus to stomach
 23. Help maintain strong bones and teeth, blood and other tissues.
 24. Material that is not absorbed in the large intestine which form a solid waste
 25. Opening where the rectum ends
 26. The digestion (breaking down of food) by enzymes such as ptyalin

Down

1. Where most digestion takes place
 2. Makes up 60 % (55-75%) of your body
 4. Front teeth

5. Eyeteeth
 6. Physical action of breaking down food into smaller parts
 7. Substance produced in the liver which breaks up fat molecules into smaller ones
 9. Flat of tissue that closes over your windpipe when you swallow
 10. Back teeth
 14. Process of breaking down food into nutrients. This is done by the digestive system
 18. Raw materials used to make proteins.
 21. A smooth muscle lined with slippery mucus to move food down to your stomach