

Global Health

Across

9. An aspect or personal behavior or life-style, an environmental exposure, or a inborn or inherited characteristic, that, on the basis of the epidemiologic evidence, is known to be associated with health related conditions considered importo to prevent

11. Result of population migration from rural areas in addition to natural urban demographic growth.

15. The shift in the pattern of disease from communicable diseases to noncommunicable diseases.

16. The state of complete physical, mental and social well-being

17. The application of the principles of public health to health problems and challenges that transcend national

Down

1. Sickness or any departure, subjective or objective, from a psychological or physiological state of well-being

2. YYL

3. DALY

4. MDG

5. The circumstances or the conditions conditions in which people are born, grow, live, work and age

6. YLD

7. The shift from a pattern of high fertility and high mortality to low fertility and low mortality, with population growth occurring between.

8. SDG

10. GBD

12. Consistent set of indicators to measure health status (i.e Infant mortality rate)

13. Refers to death

14. The science of preventing disease, prolonging life, and promoting health.