

Global Vocabulary

Across

2. Medieval political system in which monarchs and lesser nobles made alliances based on exchanging land grants for loyalty
 4. Ancient Egyptian writing system using pictures and symbols for ideas or sounds
 5. The language of everyday speech, not of scholars, in a country or region
 10. Highly organized society marked by advanced knowledge of trade, government, arts, science, and often written language
 17. A group or chain of islands
 19. A historic item made or used by humans, such as a tool, ornament, or pottery
 20. Belief in only one God
 21. Scientist who studies fossil remains
 22. The skills and knowledge used by people to make tools and do work
 24. An independent state consisting of a city and the surrounding land and villages

25. Member of a group of people with no fixed home, who travels constantly to find food and water
 26. The exchange of goods, ideas, and customs among different cultures
 27. Time before written history

Down

1. Form of government in which a small group holds political power
 3. System by which goods and services are produced and distributed to meet the people's needs
 6. Political theory that a ruler derives his or her power directly from God and is accountable only to God
 7. Worship of many gods
 8. Scientist who studies physical and cultural characteristics
 9. Formal exclusion from membership or participation in a church

11. Person who makes maps
 12. Political system in which a monarch (or group) holds supreme, unlimited power. Or theory that supports such a system
 13. Form of government in which the citizens hold power
 14. Sumerian system of writing using wedge-shaped markings
 15. A system of trade in which goods, not money, are exchanged
 16. The way of life of a given people at a given time, including language, behavior, and beliefs
 18. Scientist who studies earlier peoples and cultures
 23. A line of rulers who belong to the same family