

Name: _____

Date: _____

Government Test 1

Across

- 2. rule by force
- 4. Prime minister is elected among members of legislature
- 7. rule by small group
- 10. one ruler
- 12. Government plays little or no role in economy
- 15. All power is concentrated in the states, which only allow the central government very limited powers
- 16. Ability to get someone to do what you want
- 17. rule by inheritance

18. People own the factors of production and can start their own businesses

19. All power is concentrated in the national government, and states only administer national policy

Down

- 1. Government plays a large role in the economy to more equally distribute incomes and government benefits
- 3. Constitution limits power
- 5. King has unlimited power

6. Government largely or completely controls economic decisions

- 8. Establishes the structure and processes of government
- 9. Division of power among the national and state governments, so that EACH level of government has specific powers
- 11. Government owns the factors of production and directs the entire economy
- 13. Right to use power
- 14. Introduction to constitution to define the goals of government