

Government Vocabulary Review

Across

4. A country that is not ruled by another country.
 7. The act of choosing a government leader of one's choice.
 13. To temporarily stop doing something in order to express disapproval.
 14. Rules and laws are created and enforced, by government, for this specific reason.
 15. To stop dealing with or buying from from an establishment, or to stop using an an item in an attempt to harm someone or someplace financially.
 16. A government creates these in order to control its citizens from wrongdoings.
 18. The way in which citizens of a country give something up in order to receive something in return from their government.
 19. Everyone must follow the laws and the consequences are the same for all including the leaders.

22. Another term used to describe a dictatorship.

23. A written request for something, signed by supporters of the request.

24. Total chaos; without rules or laws, this would happen.

Down

1. The benefit or interest of all. The government will do what is best for all people
 2. The freedom of a person to enjoy the individual rights guaranteed by the laws or constitution such as freedom of religion or speech.
 3. The way in which a government a government protects its citizens from outside.
 5. Public service, maintain order, national security, and make economic decsion
 6. This way in which a government decides how money will be raised and spent.

8. The amount of influence an individual has in their government and the ability to show disapproval with the government.

9. To rise up against an authority as a very large group of people; to rebel against a government.

10. A government type where the leader has complete control and rules by fear.

11. When a group of people attempt to influence the vote of a lawmaker using a form of persuasion (money, one-sided information).

12. A government type where the people have a say in the government and choose the leaders.

17. A government type where the country is ruled by a king or queen.

20. Ways and methods in which individuals can show disapproval toward the government.

21. To move toward a place in a large group, as a mean of protect or confrontation.