

Name: _____

Date: _____

Government and Law

Across

1. The political party with the second most seats in the lower house is called....
12. what is the highest form of government?
14. A bill made by the parliament and approved by the GG is called a ... of parliament
16. What is the upper house in the federal parliament also called?
17. In the senate there are how many senators from each state?

Down

2. The lower house in federal parliament is known as the house of...
3. The upper house of the state government is called the legislative
4. the party with majority of seats in the lower house is called...
5. Australia's Parliament is
6. The governor general is representing the...
7. What is the second highest form of government?

8. The royal representative at a state level is called a...
9. The Australian government is a...
10. the lower house of the state government is called the legislative...
11. What is the lowest form of government
13. How many levels of government are there?
15. in the senate there are how many senators for territories