

Name: _____

Grain

Across

7. _____ is adding nutrients lost during processing back into the finished product
9. This process is used for oil seeds?
12. The Kansas City Board of Trade handles what sales?
17. This is an example of a dry legume.
18. What is the first step in processing grain?
19. Consuming at least _____ or more ounces
20. what is the number 1 consumed grain?
21. Germination of barley seed to active enzymes is what?
23. Oil based grains are also used for _____ and lubricants.

24. Whole grains contain the entire _____ kernel.

25. This is an example of a oil based grain.

Down

1. Grading tests for _____ kernels?
2. This is an example of a cereal grain.
3. oil based grains are grown primarily for the _____ of their edible oils.
4. This is one of the most common grains grown.
5. Grade levels one and two are used for _____ consumption?
6. the removal of bran and germ is this?
8. Legumes use _____ from the atmosphere to make protein.

10. What is the most popular type of grain by-product?

11. Syrups with high sugar regulate _____ pressure?

13. Cereal grains are any plant from the _____ family that yields an edible grain.

14. Inspections happens to establish a _____?

15. Grains are steamed and _____ to expose oil.

16. Irradiation destroys any _____ , molds, and bacteria

22. Whole grains contain the bran, _____, and endosperm.