

Name: _____

Gram Positive/Negative Bacteria

Across

2. The first reagent used during gram staining is

3. The third reagent used during gram staining is

7. Axial filaments are internal flagella found only in

12. What causes infectious stomatitis in reptiles and otitis externally in dogs and cats?

13. Bordetella bronchiseptica causes what disease in pigs?

14. An exoenzyme that hydrolyzes starch is called a

15. The etiologic agent of Lyme disease is

Down

1. What is the causative agent of kennel cough in dogs?

4. What bacteria lacks a cell wall?

5. What causes bubonic plague?

6. Gram positive bacteria stain _____ after gram staining

8. A genus of bacterium that produces endospores

9. A basic dye will give a _____ stain

10. Gram negative bacteria stains

11. Small, gram negative coccobacilli