

Name: _____

Date: _____

Grammar

Across

- 2. incomplete sentence/ lacking a complete subject or predicate
- 4. a punctuation mark indicating a pause between parts of a sentence
- 6. this happens when the writer shifts from one tense to another without any reason. (Past tense - present tense)
- 8. this happens when the writer shifts from one person to the next without any reason.
- 9. it is used to create a paper trail that the reader can follow to locate the sources you are writing about.

- 10. double quotation marks around the first speakers words

Down

- 1. These strengthen or emphasize the importance of a word or phrase in a sentence
- 3. misplaced words in a sentence or words that almost always distort the intended meaning
- 5. a sentence usually containing two or more clauses not connected by the correct conjunction or punctuation
- 7. usually the name of a book or short story. Usually written in all caps or italicized