

Grammar C3

Across

2. A sentence requires a subject & _____

5. The subject _____ is understood and not stated.

8. Predicate adjectives describe the _____.

9. An _____ verb does not have a complement.

12. A _____ noun renames/identifies the subject.

13. Transitive verbs have a complement called _____

14. _____ sentences end with an exclamation point.

Down

1. WW. _____ sentences make a statement

3. Compound predicates share the same _____.

4. _____ sentences give a command.

6. Compound subjects share the same _____.

7. _____ order occurs when the subject appears after the predicate

10. In the pattern S-be-Advl, the _____ is an adverb or a prepositional phrase needed to complete the sentence.

11. A(n) _____ object never follows a preposition.