

Great Expectations

Across

- 3. A device used by Mrs. Joe on Pip to punish him
5. The benefactor of Pip and a convict who was previously a sheep farmer
7. The man who killed Mrs. Joe and flirted with Biddy
10. Who did Pip fall madly in love with?
11. The workplace for blacksmiths and where Joe and Orlick fought
12. The man who Miss Havisham was engaged to and broke her heart
14. Pip's older sister, the husband of Joe, and was said to brought Pip up by hand
16. What is Pip's full name

20. A tavern with a bar where Pip receives a two one-pound notes from a stranger

23. The maid of Mr. Jaggers and the mother of Estella

24. Where did Stella go to learn to become a proper lady?

25. A blacksmith, the husband of Pip's sister, and a good friend of Pip

Down

- 1. The manor Miss Havisham lives in
2. The merchant Pip hires to set up Herbert as a business partner
4. The man who claims to have been responsible for Pip's fortune
6. Who is the Author of the story?
8. The women who ends up getting married to Wemmick

9. The man who ends up marrying Estella and dies from mistreating a horse

13. Who is the main character of the story?

15. The object in Miss Havisham's house that is a symbol of decay

17. A pale young gentleman Pip fought and later becomes good friends with him

18. The guardian of Pip and a very skilled lawyer in London

19. The clerk for Mr. Jaggers who is in love with Miss Skiffins

21. The capital of England and the city Pip lives in with Herbert.

22. A young girl that moves into Joe's house in order to take care of Mrs. Joe and taught Pip how to read and write