

Name: _____

Date: _____

Greek monsters and beasts

Across

3. a sea monster (or whirlpool) with a mouth for a face who had to swallow huge amounts of water a day and who shares the same channel as the sea beast, Scylla

9. centaurine sea gods with the upper body of a man, lower part of a horse, with the tail of a fish

10. a fire breathing monster that has a lion head and body, a goat head in the middle, and a snake for a tail

11. a winged horse

13. type of constrictor that lives near the equator

14. half woman half sea nymph, known as the mother of monsters

Down

1. a creature with impenetrable skin by human weapons

2. a nine headed serpent

4. a two headed dog who was the brother of the three headed dog Cerberus and the offspring of the mother and father of monsters

5. a female beast with the body of a lion, head of a woman, eagle wings, and snake for a tail

6. a sea goddess who was turned into a monster who haunted the rocks and killed six men when ships passed by and who is opposite in the sea to the whirlpool demon, Charybdis

7. a snake like woman who steals little children for their blood

8. 3 sisters who share one eye and one tooth between them

12. a seductive mermaid like creature who lures sailors to their deaths by song