

Name: _____

Group 3 Assessing Respirations

Across

3. Average Male 14-18; Female 16-20

4. Good, normal, unlabored breathing

6. Respirations less than 12 and greater than 25

8. Difficult or labor breathing

10. Absence of breathing

12. Factors that affect respirations example 2

13. Rate and depth controlled by respiratory center in the brain.

14. Approaching Death

15. Abnormally rapid and often shallow breathing

Down

1. Factors that affect respirations example 1

2. Factors that affect respirations example 4

5. Deep and labored breathing can be associated with kidney failure

7. Factors that affect respirations example 3

9. Abnormally slow breathing

11. Abnormal breathing groups of quick, shallow followed by regular or irregular apnea