

Guatemala

Across

2. ___ are common insects that can carry a variety of diseases, such as malaria and yellow fever.

7. Any non-profit, voluntary citizens' group which is organized on a local, national or international level (acronym)

10. A virus that is considered a risk when travelling to Guatemala, which often causes birth defects if contracted during pregnancy

12. Praziquantel is used to treat Schistosomiasis. This drug belongs to what class?

14. Drug class used to treat histoplasma capsulatum

15. This country is considered upper middle-income by the World Bank

16. Guatemala is prone to natural disasters which greatly impact the livelihoods of populations living in vulnerable areas. What is one of the most common weather changes?

Down

1. The feeling of disorientation experienced by someone who is suddenly subjected to an unfamiliar culture, way of life, or set of attitudes (two words, no space).

3. Corn and beans are the primary crops grown by Guatemalan farmers simply to provide for basic needs, not to generate an income. This is called ___ farming.

4. This drug class has three main mechanism of action; inhibiting cell wall synthesis, inhibiting protein synthesis, and inhibiting nucleic acid synthesis

5. The number one UN Sustainable Development Goal (two words, no space)

6. The networks of relationships among people who live and work in a particular society, enabling that society to function effectively (two words, no space)

8. The four pillars of food security are: availability, access, utilization and ___.

9. This disease is among the top three causes of death in Guatemala, resulting often from its dehydrating effects.

11. The primary role of this organization is to direct and coordinate international health within the UN system, and is the directing and coordinating authority for same (acronym).

13. Guatemala is considered the birthplace of the ___ civilization and culture