

Guess Who's Who at LU!

Across

4. The only program on campus that you have to be admitted into.

6. The mass communications department had an opportunity to study here.

7. All of the professors in this department have worked in the field prior to teaching.

9. One of the most popular programming languages.

10. A destination where students can receive help in various subject areas.

11. Instrument used to hear the heartbeat.

12. Smallest major on campus.

Down

1. The criminal justice department is housed in this building.

2. Offers students two different tracks to choose from.

3. A mandatory class that students must take to become acclimated to college.

5. This department features courses such as accounting and financial management.

8. One of the study abroad destinations for this major.