

Guess the installer??

Across

3. The owner of this company is Rick Oeur and he is the CEO/FOUNDER of bubble tea better known as Bobalicious also he is the owner of this particular company since January 1997. What is his installation company called?
4. This is a family owned installation company founded in 1970 also, based out of Maryland. The Co-owners & Vice President name is Anthony and the warehouse operations manager name is Andre'.
6. This company is in Virginia Beach, VA and has been in business for 8 years.
7. The doors opened in 2008 and now has an estimated $223,282 USD in yearly revenue and approximately 15 employees. Guess the installer?
8. This company first distribution center was started in 1991 in Atlanta, GA and they have 25 offices throughout the U.S. Their working formula is: applying the "golden rule" to business and the art of handling a problem the "right way" when and if one occurs.

9. The president of this company has been employed with this company since November 2011 and she is a successful business women named Amanda Stophel with only a high school education.
10. This company is locally-owned in Elizabeth City, NC and also supports the Ronald McDonald House Charities
11. This company carries a dual meaning: Outstanding Customer Service, Relationships built on trust. The company has only been open since February 24, 2016.

Down

1. This installation company has been in business for 3 years, located in Pennsylvania.
2. This company is owned by a women and the offices are in Fredericksburg, VA and Pendelton, NC. This company has 24/7 facilities.
5. Scott & Beth Appelman created Appelman Construction in 1983. The company is apart of the Northern Kentucky Home Builder's Association.