

HDR 351 Hair Additions Instructor: K.MacPhail

Across

2. Bonding material that harmonizes with the client's own hair.
 6. A hair attachment of some sort that does not fully cover the head.
 9. Made by knotting individual strands of hair into mesh with a needle.
 11. These hairpieces are great for special occasions and are attached temporarily.
 13. Long strips of hair with a threaded edge.
 14. Can often be worn out of the box with little or no styling
 15. These type of extensions have a tendency to slip down the hair shaft and require frequent attention.
 17. The best way to achieve a natural look is to _____ the ends when cutting a wig.

19. This type of hairpiece has an opening in the base that the clients own hair is pulled through to blend.

21. After washing a wig do not wring water out as this will cause the wig to _____.

22. _____ hair is cheap human hair where the cuticle is not intact.

23. Modacrylic fiber

Down

1. Can be cut, colored or permed to suit the client
 3. A wig _____ is used to color or perm a wig,
 4. When coloring a wig, always do a _____ prior to a full application.
 5. These wigs are light and comfortable to wear and allow the scalp to breathe.

7. _____ hair is the most versatile and readily available on the market. This type of hair can be very expensive.

8. This type of hair is taken from an animals belly and is the purest of whites.

10. Wig construction will determine the _____ in which you style the hair.

12. A halo would be an example of this type of extension.

16. These wigs are great for people who have no hair of their own.

18. This is the highest quality human hair that has the cuticle intact.

20. _____ hair is also known as Remy hair