

HIM3PRB Week 3 Revision

Across

- 2. Unsolicited health information may be filed under the _____ section of the medical record.
- 4. Health records can be used to educate a variety of health and medical.
- 6. A dimension of health information.
- 8. A formal examination of an organisation's or individual's accounts or financial situation.
- 10. The responsibility of a health information manager includes forms _____.
- 12. Everything in the medical record should be _____ by the clinician.
- 13. The _____ Oriented Medical Record contains a problem list that acts as an index which includes everything wrong with the patient.

14. The first step in a documentation audit is to _____.

- 18. A key purpose of the medical/health record is _____ of care.
- 19. A medical record must have results, treatments and diagnosis clearly _____.
- 20. A common form of health record format, the _____ Oriented Medical Record.

Down

- 1. A _____ cover helps to protect contents and keep them together.
- 3. A main component of POMR is _____.
- 5. Every form in a medical record should have a patient _____ label.
- 7. _____ forms are extremely important and must be included in every medical record.

9. A medical record can be also used for _____ purposes.

- 11. Reviewing document inconsistencies is a type of _____ audit.
- 15. A standardised multidisciplinary patient protocol is a _____ pathway.
- 16. Daily patient progress notes also known as _____ (Abbreviation).
- 17. Unsolicited patient health information is also known as _____ information a health provider has not actively taken steps to collect.