

Name: _____

Date: _____

Habit 2

Across

2. develop our talents within the context of principles and personal guidelines.
4. imagination allows to
6. Our lives need to be centered on correct principles -- deep, fundamental truths, classic truths, generic common denominators.
7. to begin with the image of the end of your life as the frame of reference by which everything else is measured.
9. the first creation; doing the right things; clarified values
10. Becoming Your Own First Creator

Down

1. the first creation; doing the right things; clarified values
3. deep, fundamental truths, classic truths, generic common denominators.
5. Spouse centeredness Family centeredness Money centeredness Work centeredness Possession centeredness Pleasure centeredness Friend/enemy centeredness Church centeredness Self centeredness
8. the second creation; doing things right; efficiency, setting and achieving goals