

Name: _____

Date: _____

Hair Sculpture

Across

2. This comb is used to sculpt close to the scalp

5. Protruding bone located below the crest area in the back of the head

10. Produces tapering or an angle effect on the end of each strand

11. Area below the occipital area

12. This produces a clean, blunt edge

13. Widest Area of the head
14. Produces a distinct and regular alternation of shorter and longer lengths

Down

1. This comb controls larger amounts of hair

3. Top/Highest point of the head

4. This comb detangles hair

6. This comb is used to distribute hair

7. Electric implement that creates clean, precise lines to soft, broom-like effects

8. Upright or tilted forward are examples of what?

9. Area in the upper back and on tops of the crest area, begins where the tops of the head begins to curve downward

Word Bank

Head Position

Texturizing Shears

Occipital

Cutting Comb

Taper Comb

Apex

Nape

Crown

Master Sketcher

Shears

Shampoo Comb

Razor

Clippers

Crest Area