

Hair Styling Terms

Across

- 2. one of the base partings toward which the curl is wrapped
- 4. the direction that the hair emerges from the scalp
- 7. at 90 degree angle to a given surface
- 11. an aesthetically pleasing design that has an enduring popularity
- 14. one of four approximately equal sections of the head
- 15. large bone forming the back of the head
- 16. portion of the strand between the base and the circle
- 18. the ability of the hair to absorb and retain sufficient moisture
- 24. the portion of the strand that is wound around an implement. a circle in the hair
- 25. acronym for density, elasticity, porosity, and texture, the central elements for a hair and scalp analysis
- 28. uniformly weighted, symmetrical
- 29. A semi-circle in the hair
- 30. protein substance comprising the hair and nails, also in some epidermal layers
- 31. the ability of hair to stretch and return to its original shape without distortion
- 33. the amount of hairs per square inch on the scalp
- 37. a line positioned between horizontal and vertical
- 38. method of winding hair from ends to scalp
- 39. the upper 2/3 of the back of the head

- 41. the direction the hair flows in the finished style
 - 43. one step operation for drying and styling the hair
 - 44. method of curling of straightening performed on dry hair using irons and pressing combs
 - 45. all of the parts involved in the construction of a base
- Down
- 1. the curl, the portion of the wrapped strand beyond the stem
 - 3. the final step in a hairstyle, final placement of the strands and application of hairspray
 - 5. curl rests below the working part, completely off the base
 - 6. the construction of two or more alternating shapings connected by a ridge, comb and fingers are used
 - 8. curl rests completely on the base, achieved by the use of a 45 degree above perpendicular elevation of the strand
 - 9. hair that repels liquids and chemicals, often lack manageability
 - 10. outer tissue comprised of the epidermis and the dermis
 - 12. cuticle(the outer layer), cortex(middle layer), medulla(innermost layer)
 - 13. oval, round, inverted triangle, square, oblong, diamond, and pear shape
 - 17. to restore the hair to a balanced state, usually achieved through the use of humectants and chemically treated protein products

- 19. the process that occurs when coily hair is allowed to develop in its natural state without the use of combs, heat, or chemicals
- 20. the outline of a style, reveals the balance of a style
- 21. a desirable division of the hair to the scalp, visible in the finished style
- 22. method of temporarily strengthening curly hair by means of a heated pressing comb
- 23. protein substance comprising the pigment of the hair
- 26. triangular section from the recessions to the apex, aka fringe
- 27. the area near the scalp at which a roller or iron barrel is placed
- 32. hair rests completely on the working part, half on and half off
- 34. straight if curved lines equal distant at any point
- 35. in hair styling, the degree to which the hair extends from the hair in a finished style
- 36. acronym for carbon, hydrogen, oxygen, nitrogen, and sulfur, the elemental components of hair
- 40. ability of the hair to return and retain an established form
- 42. step in the performance of a style in which the curl created by an implement is blended with adjacent curls